

Kingfisher Chronicle - 2005-2006

March 2006

No. 189

Presidents Forward

Sorry chaps forget to send the editor my first article of the year.

Reminder - Meal Apologies

Apologies should be notified to Alan King no later than 12 noon on the Monday prior to the meeting. Failure to do this will result in a £5 charge.

Thanks – David

Thanks to David Britten for providing the wine last week it was well appreciated on top table.

International Luxor Childrens Home

Amal – born June 2005, sponsored by the Rotary Club of Redditch Kingfisher.

We have received information from Sunshine Homes regarding sponsoring arrangements. We will receive a 6 monthly update and photograph, usually in June and December each year. We are encouraged to send a birthday card. If we wish to send a gift then this should have a maximum value of £20 and be as light as possible as it will have to be carried out to Egypt. We are not encouraged to send gifts direct. We are asked not to phone the sponsored child but are allowed to visit them if we are in Luxor. I can provide further information if required.

David Tyrrell International Chairman

Irish Night – time running out

Its this Friday.

Moat House Menu

Last week we published the weekly menus for our venue. Comments are invited, if you don't like an item on the menu please say so rather than just not turning up.

This Week in History

On the 22nd March 1926 the first directional arrows and markings were introduced onto British roads at Hyde Park Corner in London causing confusion and leading to seven accidents on the first day.
